26 1-A. The court may sentence a person to a term of imprisonment, not to exceed the 27 maximum term authorized for the crime, an initial portion of which must be served and 28 the remainder of which must be suspended. The period of probation commences on the 29 date the person is released from the initial unsuspended portion of the term of 30 imprisonment, unless the court orders it to commence on an earlier date. If the period of 31 probation commences on the date the person is released from the initial unsuspended
32 portion of the term of imprisonment, that day is counted as the first full day of the period 33 of probation.

34 A. If the period of probation commences upon release of the person from the initial 35 unsuspended portion of the term of imprisonment, the court may revoke probation for 36 any criminal conduct committed during that initial period of imprisonment.

37 B. The court may revoke probation if, during the initial unsuspended portion of the 38 term of imprisonment, a person sentenced as a repeat sexual assault offender,
39 pursuant to section 1252, subsection 4-B, refuses to actively participate in a sex

1 offender treatment program in accordance with the expectations and judgment of the 2 treatment providers, when requested to do so by the Department of Corrections.

3 B-1. The court may revoke probation if, during an unsuspended portion of the term 4 of imprisonment:

5 (1) The person has contact with a victim with whom the person has been ordered 6 not to have contact as a condition of probation;

7 (2) In the case of a person who has been committed to the Department of 8 Corrections, the person has contact with any victim with whom the person has 9 been prohibited to have contact by the Department of Corrections; or

10 (3) In the case of a person who has been committed to a county or regional jail,
11 the person has contact with any victim with whom the person has been prohibited 12 to have contact by the county or regional jail.

13 "Victim," as used in this paragraph, has the same meaning as in section 1171, 14 subsection 2 and section 1175.

15 C. As to both the suspended and unsuspended portions of the sentence, the place of 16 imprisonment must be as follows.

17 (1) For a Class D or Class E crime the court must specify a county jail as the 18 place of imprisonment.

19 (2) For a Class A, Class B or Class C crime the court must:

20 (a) Specify a county jail as the place of imprisonment for any portion of the 21 sentence that is 9 months or less; and

22 (b) Commit the person to the Department of Corrections for any portion of 23 the sentence that is more than 9 months.

24 D. If execution of the sentence is stayed, the court may revoke probation for criminal 25 conduct committed during the period of stay or for failure to report as ordered.

26 Sec. E-2. 17-A MRSA §1203-C, first ¶, as enacted by PL 1999, c. 24, §4, is 27 amended to read:

28 The court may sentence a person to a term of imprisonment not to exceed the 29 maximum term authorized for the crime, suspend the entire term of imprisonment and 30 accompany the suspension with a period of probation not to exceed the maximum period
31 authorized for the crime, to commence on the date the person goes into actual execution
32 of the sentence. That day is counted as the first full day of the period of probation.

33 Sec. E-3. 17-A MRSA §1206, sub-§7-C, as amended by PL 2005, c. 507, §14, is 34 further amended to read:

35 7-C. The running of the period of probation is tolled upon either the delivery of the 36 summons, the filing of the written notice with the court that the person can not be located 37 or the arrest of the person. If the court finds a violation of probation, the day upon which 38 the tolling occurs does not count toward the period of probation. If the motion is 39 dismissed or withdrawn, or if the court finds no violation of probation, the running of the

1 period of probation is deemed not to have been tolled. The conditions of probation 2 continue in effect during the tolling of the running of the period of probation, and any 3 violation of a condition subjects the person to a revocation of probation pursuant to the 4 provisions of this chapter.

5 Sec. E-4. 17-A MRSA §1209 is enacted to read:

6 §1209. Completion of period of probation

7 A period of probation is completed when the last day of the period, excluding any 8 days during which the running of the period of probation is tolled, ends.

9 SUMMARY

10 This bill contains the following provisions.

11 1. In Part A it amends the crime of endangering the welfare of a child by enacting in 12 the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 17-A, section 554, subsection 1, paragraph D a new 13 Class C crime for the reckless violation of a duty of care or protection that results in death
14 or serious bodily injury to the child. It amends the crime of endangering the welfare of a 15 child under Title 17-A, section 554, subsection 1, paragraph C to cover recklessly 16 violating a duty of care or protection.

17 2. In Part B it amends the crime of gross sexual assault against a person under 12
18 years of age or under 14 years of age, both of which are Class A crimes, by requiring that 19 the actor be at least 3 years older than the other person.

20 3. In Part C it amends Title 15, section 393 to recognize that convictions in the tribal 21 courts of the Passamaquoddy Tribe and the Penobscot Nation are disqualifying domestic 22 violence convictions for the purposes of the prohibition against firearms created by Title 23 15, section 393, subsection 1-B. It makes Title 15, section 393 more consistent with the 24 Maine Criminal Code by using the phrase "another jurisdiction" to reference the courts 25 defined by that term.

26 4. In Part D, in response to State v. LeBlanc-Simpson, 2018 ME 109, it clarifies that 27 a judicial officer in issuing a written release order under Title 15, section 1026, 28 subsection 2-A or 3 must inform a defendant of the conditions of release, that the 29 conditions take effect and are fully enforceable immediately and that failure to appear or 30 comply with conditions may result in revocation of bail and additional criminal penalties.
31 The bill provides that a condition of release takes effect and is fully enforceable
32 immediately as of the time the judicial officer sets the condition, unless the bail order 33 expressly excludes a condition of release from immediate applicability, if the defendant is 34 advised of the conditions and that failure to appear or comply with the conditions may 35 subject the defendant to revocation of bail and additional criminal penalties.

36 5. In Part E it amends the probation statutes to reflect the current practice of the 37 Department of Corrections with respect to calculating the period of probation. A 38 probationer receives credit for a full day of probation on the day probation commences,

1 regardless of the time of day, and receives no credit for a day on which probation is 2 tolled. The period of probation ends when the final day of the probation period ends.
