1 Section 3

2 BY repealing

3 Chapter 44 of the Acts of the General Assembly of 2007

4 Section 3

5 SECTION 1. BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND,
6 That the Laws of Maryland read as follows:

7 Article – Election Law

8 8–503.

9 (a) Each political party shall nominate or provide for the nomination of 10 candidates for presidential elector of the party in accordance with party rules.

11 (b) The number of candidates nominated by each political party shall be the 12 number that this State is entitled to elect.

13 (c) (1) The names of individuals nominated as candidates for presidential 14 elector by a political party shall be certified to the State Board by the presiding officers of 15 the political party.

16 (2) The names of individuals nominated as candidates for presidential 17 elector by a candidate for President of the United States who is nominated by petition shall 18 be certified to the State Board by the candidate on a form prescribed by the State Board.

19 (3) The electors shall be certified to the State Board at least 30 days before
20 the general election.

21 [(d) If the number of presidential electors nominated is less than or greater than 22 the State's number of electoral votes, presidential electors shall be nominated as provided
23 for under Article III of § 8–5A–01 of this title.]

24 8–504.

25 (a) (1) At the general election for President and Vice President of the United 26 States there shall be elected, in accordance with subsection (b) of this section, the number
27 of presidential electors to which this State is entitled.

28 (2) Presidential electors shall be elected [under the procedure provided in 29 § 8–5A–01 of this title] AT LARGE BY THE VOTERS OF THE ENTIRE STATE.

30 (b) (1) The names of the candidates for the office of presidential elector may 31 not be printed on the ballot.

1 Prior to the time set by law for the meeting and voting by the presidential electors,
2 the chief election official of each member state shall determine the number of votes for each
3 presidential slate in each state of the United States and in the District of Columbia in which 4 votes have been cast in a statewide popular election and shall add such votes together to 5 produce a “national popular vote total” for each presidential slate.

6 The chief election official of each member state shall designate the presidential slate
7 with the largest national popular vote total as the “national popular vote winner.”

8 The presidential elector certifying official of each member state shall certify the 9 appointment in that official’s own state of the elector slate nominated in that state in 10 association with the national popular vote winner.

11 At least six days before the day fixed by law for the meeting and voting by the 12 presidential electors, each member state shall make a final determination of the number of 13 popular votes cast in the state for each presidential slate and shall communicate an official
14 statement of such determination within 24 hours to the chief election official of each other 15 member state.

16 The chief election official of each member state shall treat as conclusive an official
17 statement containing the number of popular votes in a state for each presidential slate
18 made by the day established by federal law for making a state’s final determination
19 conclusive as to the counting of electoral votes by Congress.

20 In event of a tie for the national popular vote winner, the presidential elector
21 certifying official of each member state shall certify the appointment of the elector slate
22 nominated in association with the presidential slate receiving the largest number of 23 popular votes within that official’s own state.

24 If, for any reason, the number of presidential electors nominated in a member state
25 in association with the national popular vote winner is less than or greater than that state’s 26 number of electoral votes, the presidential candidate on the presidential slate that has been 27 designated as the national popular vote winner shall have the power to nominate the 28 presidential electors for that state and that state’s presidential elector certifying official
29 shall certify the appointment of such nominees.

30 The chief election official of each member state shall immediately release to the 31 public all vote counts or statements of votes as they are determined or obtained.

32 This article shall govern the appointment of presidential electors in each member
33 state in any year in which this agreement is, on July 20, in effect in states cumulatively
34 possessing a majority of the electoral votes.

35 Article IV. Other Provisions.

1 This agreement shall take effect when states cumulatively possessing a majority of 2 the electoral votes have enacted this agreement in substantially the same form and the 3 enactments by such states have taken effect in each state.

4 Any member state may withdraw from this agreement, except that a withdrawal
5 occurring six months or less before the end of a President's term shall not become effective
6 until a President or Vice President shall have been qualified to serve the next term.

7 The chief executive of each member state shall promptly notify the chief executive of 8 all other states of when this agreement has been enacted and has taken effect in that 9 official's state, when the state has withdrawn from this agreement, and when this 10 agreement takes effect generally.

11 This agreement shall terminate if the electoral college is abolished.

12 If any provision of this agreement is held invalid, the remaining provisions shall not 13 be affected.

14 Article V. Definitions.

15 For purposes of this agreement,

16 "chief executive" shall mean the Governor of a state of the United States or the Mayor
17 of the District of Columbia;

18 "elector slate" shall mean a slate of candidates who have been nominated in a state
19 for the position of presidential elector in association with a presidential slate;

20 "chief election official" shall mean the state official or body that is authorized to 21 certify the total number of popular votes for each presidential slate;

22 "presidential elector" shall mean an elector for President and Vice President of the 23 United States;

24 "presidential elector certifying official" shall mean the state official or body that is 25 authorized to certify the appointment of the state's presidential electors;

26 "presidential slate" shall mean a slate of two persons, the first of whom has been 27 nominated as a candidate for President of the United States and the second of whom has 28 been nominated as a candidate for Vice President of the United States, or any legal 29 successors to such persons, regardless of whether both names appear on the ballot
30 presented to the voter in a particular state;

31 "state" shall mean a state of the United States and the District of Columbia; and

32 "statewide popular election" shall mean a general election in which votes are cast for 33 presidential slates by individual voters and counted on a statewide basis.]

Chapter 43 of the Acts of 2007

[SECTION 3. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That Section 1 of this Act may not take effect until the interstate compact entitled “Agreement Among the States to Elect the President by National Popular Vote” is enacted in substantially the same form by states cumulatively possessing a majority of the electoral votes and the enactments of the compact have taken effect in each state; that Section 1 of this Act shall only govern the appointment of presidential electors in any year in which the Agreement Among the States to Elect the President by National Popular Vote is, on July 20, in effect in states cumulatively possessing a majority of the electoral votes; that all the states of the United States are requested to concur in this Act of the General Assembly of Maryland by the enactment of a similar Act; and that the Department of Legislative Services shall notify the appropriate officials of the combined states of the enactment of this Act.]
