(2) Prima facie evidence of a nuisance and the existence thereof is established when any of the respective officers or persons named in § 29-3-102 notifies the owner of a place or property in writing of:

SECTION 2. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 29-3-110, is amended by adding the following new subsection:

(f)

(1) If, upon the trial, the existence of a nuisance is established under § 29-3-101(f) and, following an order of abatement, an additional incident occurs on the same parcel of real property that results in the type of charges that resulted in the original nuisance finding, then one (1) additional incident is prima facie evidence of a nuisance per se and the existence thereof for which any of the respective officers or persons named in § 29-3-102 in the name of the state may avail themselves of any remedies available at law or in equity.

(2) If the court finds a nuisance as described in subdivision (f)(1) and the person or entity keeping, maintaining, or carrying on such nuisance is the person or entity who was subject to the previous order of abatement, then, in addition to the remedies available at law or in equity, the court may require the person or entity keeping, maintaining, or carrying on such nuisance to pay statutory damages in an amount not less than one thousand dollars ($1,000) and not more than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) to any person who owns real property within the zip code in which the nuisance exists and who files a claim with the court alleging that the person's property value was damaged by the continued existence of the nuisance.
