

113TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

H. R. 4784

To incentivize State reporting systems that allow mental health professionals to submit information on certain individuals deemed dangerous for purposes of prohibiting firearm possession by such individuals, and for other purposes.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MAY 30, 2014

Mr. CICILLINE (for himself, Mr. GRIJALVA, Ms. CLARKE of New York, and Mr. RANGEL) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary, and in addition to the Committee on Energy and Commerce, for a period to be subsequently determined by the Speaker, in each case for consideration of such provisions as fall within the jurisdiction of the committee concerned

A BILL

To incentivize State reporting systems that allow mental health professionals to submit information on certain individuals deemed dangerous for purposes of prohibiting firearm possession by such individuals, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “End Purchase of Fire-5 arms by Dangerous Individuals Act of 2014”.

1 SEC. 2. STATE REPORTING SYSTEMS.

2 (a) STATE REPORTING SYSTEMS AS CONDITION OF 3 RECEIVING FULL EDWARD BYRNE MEMORIAL JUSTICE
4 ASSISTANCE GRANTS AMOUNTS.—

5 (1) IN GENERAL.—For each fiscal year begin-6 ning with fiscal year 2018, a State shall—

7 (A) establish a reporting system, in accord-
8 ance with guidelines provided pursuant to sec-
9 tion 4(a), through which mental health profes-
10 sionals may report to appropriate State enti-
11 ties—

12 (i) in accordance with paragraph (2),
13 information described in such paragraph
14 with respect to individuals described in 15 such paragraph;

16 (ii) in accordance with paragraph (3),
17 information described in such paragraph
18 with respect to individuals described in 19 such paragraph; and

20 (iii) in accordance with paragraph (4),
21 information described in such paragraph
22 with respect to individuals described in 23 such paragraph;

24 (B) establish under State law a process, in 25 accordance with the guidelines provided pursu-26 ant to section 4(b), relating to temporarily committing individuals involuntarily to, or holding individuals involuntarily at, mental health facilities;

12 (D) upon notification under a subsequent 13 paragraph of this section or subparagraph (G), 14 or otherwise as specified under such paragraph 15 or subparagraph, that the basis under which a 16 record was made available under subparagraph 17 (A) does not apply, or no longer applies, shall,
18 as soon as practicable—

(ii) notify the Attorney General that such basis no longer applies so that the record system in which the record is maintained is kept up to date;

(E) ensure that the information submitted to the reporting system pursuant to this subsection—

(i) with respect to an individual described in paragraph (3), is removed from such system on the date described in the second sentence of such paragraph; and

(ii) with respect to an individual described in paragraph (4), is removed from such system on the date described in the second sentence of such paragraph;

(F) ensure that the reporting system established under subparagraph (A) includes an appeals process comparable to such a process applied with respect to the National Instant Criminal Background Check System, including with respect to procedures for notifications of individuals with respect to whom information is submitted to the reporting system and an opportunity to review and appeal such submission; and

(G)(i) ensure that any individual who—

(I) is disqualified from possessing or living a firearm under subsection (g)(4) ection 922, of title United States Code, applicable State law pursuant to inforion reported through the reporting sys-established under subparagraph (A);

(II) at the time of inclusion of such information in such reporting system is under 18 years of age;

12 is evaluated by a mental health professional by 13 not later than the date the individual is 21
14 years of age in order to determine if such indi-15 vidual should remain so disqualified; and

22 (2) INDIVIDUALS TEMPORARILY COMMITTED ON 23 A VOLUNTARY BASIS.—For purposes of subsection
24 (a)(1)(A)(i), in the case of an individual who is com-
25 mitted on a voluntary basis to a mental institution

1 (as defined for purposes of section 922(g)(4) of title 2 18, United States Code) in a State, the mental 3 health professional who is primarily responsible for 4 the individual's treatment at such institution—

5 (A) may report to the reporting system es-
6 tablished by the State under paragraph (1)(A) 7 information with respect to such individual that 8 is sufficient for inclusion in the National In-9 stant Criminal Background Check System and 10 consistent with Federal and State privacy laws 11 if such mental health professional determines,
12 in accordance with the guidelines provided pur-
13 suant to section 4(a) and with section 5(c), 14 such individual is a danger to the individual or 15 to others; and

16 (B) upon discharge of such individual from 17 such institution, shall notify the appropriate
18 State entity that the information submitted 19 under subparagraph (A) no longer applies for 20 inclusion in the reporting system established 21 under paragraph (1)(A) or any database or 22 record described in paragraph (1)(D).

23 (3) INDIVIDUALS TEMPORARILY COMMITTED OR 24 HELD ON AN INVOLUNTARY BASIS.—For purposes of 25 subsection (a)(1)(A)(ii), in the case of an individual

1 who is temporarily committed or held on an involuntary basis, in accordance with a process described in 2 paragraph (1)(B), to a mental institution (as defined 3 for purposes of section 922(g)(4) of title 18, United 4 States Code) in a State, the mental health professional 5 who is primarily responsible for the individual's treatment at such institution may report to the 6 reporting system established by the State under 7 paragraph (1)(A), as soon as is practicable after the 8 date the individual is released from such institution, 9 information with respect to such individual that is 10 sufficient for inclusion in the National Instant
11 Criminal Background Check System and consistent 12 with Federal and State privacy laws if such mental 13 health professional determines, in accordance with 14 the guidelines provided pursuant to section 4(a) and 15 with section 5(c), such individual is a danger to the 16 individual or to others. On the date that is 5 years
17 after the date of such release, for purposes of subsections
18 (a)(1)(D) and (b)(1), the appropriate State 19 entity and the Attorney General shall be deemed to 20 have been notified that the information submitted 21 under the previous sentence no longer applies for in-22 clusion in the reporting system established under 23

1 paragraph (1)(A) or any database or record de-
2 scribed in paragraph (1)(D).

3 (4) INDIVIDUALS MAKING SPECIFIC THREAT TO 4 MENTAL HEALTH PROFESSIONAL.—For purposes of 5 subsection (a)(1)(A)(iii), in the case of an individual 6 who communicates to a mental health professional a 7 serious threat, as determined by the professional in 8 accordance with the guidance provided pursuant to 9 section 4(a), of physical violence against another in-10 dividual who is reasonably identifiable, the mental 11 health professional may report to the reporting sys-12 tem established by the State under paragraph 13 (1)(A), as soon as is practicable after the date of 14 such communication, information with respect to 15 such individual that is sufficient for inclusion in the 16 National Instant Criminal Background Check Sys-
17 tem and consistent with Federal and State privacy
18 laws. On the date that is 6 months after the date
19 of such report, for purposes of subsections (a)(1)(D) 20 and (b)(1), the appropriate State entity and the At-21 torney General shall be deemed to have been notified 22 that the information submitted under the previous 23 sentence no longer applies for inclusion in the re-
24 porting system established under paragraph (1)(A)

1 or any database or record described in paragraph 2 (1)(D).

3 (b) NATIONAL INSTANT CRIMINAL BACKGROUND
4 CHECK SYSTEM UPDATES REQUIRED.—

5 (1) IN GENERAL.—The Attorney General upon 6 receiving notice pursuant to subsection (a)(1)(D)
7 shall ensure that the record in the National Instant
8 Criminal Background Check System is updated, cor-
9 rected, modified, or removed within 30 days of re-10 ceipt.

11 (2) SPECIFIC INFORMATION REMOVED FROM 12 RECORD.—The Attorney General shall ensure that 13 the information submitted to the National Instant 14 Criminal Background Check System pursuant to 15 subsection (a)—

16 (A) with respect to an individual described 17 in paragraph (3) of subsection (a), is removed 18 from such system on the date described in the 19 second sentence of such paragraph; and

20 (B) with respect to an individual described 21 in paragraph (4) of subsection (a), is removed 22 from such system on the date described in the 23 second sentence of such paragraph.

24 (c) ENFORCEMENT.—

25 (1) ATTORNEY GENERAL REPORT.—

1 (A) IN GENERAL.—Not later than January
2 31 of each year, the Attorney General shall sub-3 mit to the Committee on the Judiciary of the 4 Senate and the Committee on the Judiciary of 5 the House of Representatives a report on the 6 progress of the States in implementing and 7 maintaining the reporting system described in 8 subparagraph (A) of subsection (a)(1) and 9 process described in subparagraph (B) of such 10 subsection, and in providing that information
11 pursuant to the requirements of subparagraphs
12 (C) and (D) of such subsection.

13 (B) AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIA-
14 TIONS.—There are authorized to be appro-15 priated to the Department of Justice, such 16 funds as may be necessary to carry out sub-17 paragraph (A).

18 (2) PENALTIES.—

19 (A) DISCRETIONARY REDUCTION.—

20 (i) For each year during the 2-year 21 period beginning 3 years after the date of 22 enactment of this Act, the Attorney Gen-
23 eral may withhold not more than 3 percent
24 of the amount that would otherwise be al-
25 located to a State for such year under section 505 of the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968 (42 U.S.C.

3755) if the State is not in compliance with each requirement under subsection
(a)(1) with respect to such year.

(ii) For each year during the 5-year period after the expiration of the period referred to in clause (i), the Attorney General may withhold not more than 4 percent of the amount that would otherwise be allocated to a State for such year under section 505 of the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968 (42 U.S.C. 3755) if the State is not in compliance with each requirement under subsection (a)(1) with respect to such year.

1 with each requirement under subsection (a)(1)
2 with respect to such year.

3 (C) WAIVER BY ATTORNEY GENERAL.—

4 The Attorney General may waive the applica-
5 bility of subparagraph (B) to a State with re-6 spect to the requirements described in subpara-7 graphs (A), (B), and (C) of subsection (a)(1) if 8 the State provides substantial evidence, as de-9 termined by the Attorney General, that the 10 State is making a reasonable effort to comply 11 with such requirements.

12 (3) REALLOCATION.—Any funds that are not 13 allocated under section 505 of the Omnibus Crime 14 Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968 (42 U.S.C.
15 3755) to a State pursuant to paragraph (2) because 16 of the failure of the State to comply with the re-
17 quirements of subsection (a)(1) shall be reallocated
18 under such section to States that meet such require-19 ments.

15 comma at the end and inserting “; or”; and 16 (D) by inserting after paragraph (9), the 17 following new paragraph:

18 “(10) who has communicated to a mental 19 health professional a serious threat to commit an act 20 of physical violence against another identifiable per-21 son, for a period of 6 months after making such a 22 threat.”.

23 SEC. 4. GUIDELINES.

24 (a) GENERAL GUIDELINES FOR STATE REPORTING
25 SYSTEMS.—Not later than 16 months after the date of

1 the enactment of this Act, the Secretary of Health and 2 Human Services shall, pursuant to rulemaking and in ac-3 cordance with subsection (d), establish guidelines for 4 States and mental health professionals, with respect to es-
5 tablishing reporting systems under section 2(a)(1)—

6 (1) to ensure determinations described in para-
7 graphs (2) and (3) of section 2(a) of dangerousness 8 and determinations described in section 2(a)(4) of 9 serious threat for purposes of reporting information
10 under section 2(a)(1) are administered properly;

11 (2) to ensure that only individuals qualified to 12 make such determinations are permitted to do so;

13 (3) to ensure an individual has recourse at any 14 point during the detention of such individual at a 15 mental health institution on the basis of a voluntary 16 or involuntary commitment to contest the legality of 17 such commitment or determination of dangerousness
18 by means of a “habeas corpus” or writ hearing;

19 (4) to ensure all reporting to law enforcement 20 officials, State-based databases, and National In-21 stant Criminal Background Check System are com-22 pliant with applicable Federal and State privacy and 23 security protections and standards;

24 (5) to recommend the process by which qual-
25 fied professionals should assess an individual to de-

1 termine dangerousness for purposes described in sec-2 tion 2; and

3 (6) for any other purpose deemed necessary by 4 the Secretary.

5 (b) TEMPORARY INVOLUNTARY COMMITMENT OR 6 HOLD PROCESS GUIDELINES.—Not later than 16 months
7 after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Secretary
8 of Health and Human Services shall, pursuant to rule-9 making and in accordance with subsection (d), establish 10 guidelines for States to establish a process for temporarily
11 committing or holding individuals on an involuntary basis
12 to mental health institutions. Such guidelines shall ad-
13 dress at least the following:

14 (1) DUE PROCESS.—Guidelines to ensure any 15 determination that an individual shall be temporarily 16 involuntarily committed or held is assessed by more 17 than one qualified mental health professional.

18 (2) QUALIFIED PROFESSIONALS.—Guidelines to 19 determine which mental health professionals are 20 qualified to handle the responsibilities provided such 21 professionals under section 2.

22 (3) RECOMMENDATIONS IN ASSESSING PA-
23 TIENTS.—Guidelines recommending the process by 24 which qualified professionals should assess an indi-

1 vidual to determine dangerousness for purposes de-2 scribed in section 2.

3 (4) TREATMENTS.—

4 (A) IN GENERAL.—Guidelines for how any 5 individual designated to be temporarily involun-
6 tary committed or held and who is receiving 7 medication as a result of the mental illness of 8 such individual must be advised about the prob-9 able effects and possible side effects of the 10 medication.

11 (B) INFORMATION ON MEDICATION.—
12 Guidelines for requiring the following informa-13 tion related to medications to be given to such 14 an individual:

15 (i) The nature of the mental illness or 16 behavior that is the reason the medication
17 is being given or recommended.

18 (ii) The likelihood of such mental ill-
19 ness or behavior improving or not improv-
20 ing without the medication.

21 (iii) Reasonable alternative treatments
22 available.

23 (iv) The name and type, frequency
24 amount, and method of dispensing the

1 medication, and the probable length of 2 time the medication will be taken.

3 (5) ASSESSMENT.—Guidelines related to the 4 process of assessing an individual for a temporary 5 involuntary commitment or hold, which shall incor-
6 porate the following requirements:

7 (A) FACE TO FACE.—Prior to admitting 8 an individual to a mental health facility pursu-9 ant to such commitment, the qualified mental 10 health professional in charge of the facility or 11 designee of such professional shall assess the 12 individual with a face to face assessment to de-13 termine the appropriateness of the temporary 14 involuntary detention or hold.

15 (B) VERIFICATION FROM SECOND PROFES-
16 SIONAL.—A second mental health professional 17 shall independently verify the appropriateness
18 of the temporary involuntary detention or hold.

19 (6) ADVISEMENT.—Guidelines related to advis-
20 ing such an individual orally and in written form 21 during the following steps in the process of the indi-22 vidual being temporarily involuntarily committed or 23 held:

24 (A) TRANSPORT.—After an initial deten-25 tion by a qualified professional (as defined by

1 the State) to transport a patient to a facility,
2 an oral advisement containing critical informa-
3 tion as determined by the Secretary must be 4 given to the individual being transported to a 5 facility for an assessment.

6 (B) UPON ADMISSION.—Upon admission,
7 after a determination of dangerousness by a
8 qualified professional, an oral advisement by a 9 mental health professional containing critical 10 information as determined by the Secretary
11 must be given to the individual.

12 (7) ADDITIONAL GUIDELINES.—Any other 13 guidelines deemed necessary by the Secretary for 14 purposes of this Act.

15 (c) CERTIFICATION PROCESS.—The Secretary of 16 Health and Human Services shall establish a process for 17 certifying that States are in compliance with the guide-18 lines described in subsections (a) and (b) for purposes of 19 establishing the compliance of such States under section 20 2(c).

21 (d) CONSULTATION WITH STAKEHOLDERS.—In es-22 tablishing guidelines described in paragraphs (1), (2), and 23 (5) of subsection (a) and paragraphs (2), (3), (4), and 24 (5) of subsection (b), the Secretary of Health and Human 25 Services shall consult with relevant mental health profes-

1 sional organizations and stakeholders, such as the Amer-
2 ican Psychological Association and the American Psy-
3 chiatric Association.

4 SEC. 5. MISCELLANEOUS.

5 (a) INDIVIDUALS TEMPORARILY INVOLUNTARILY
6 COMMITTED OR HELD TO BE TREATED AS DISTINCT
7 FROM OTHERS WHO ARE INVOLUNTARILY COM-
8 MITTED.—For purposes of the National Instant Criminal 9 Background Check System, the provisions of this Act, and 10 section 922 of title 18, United States Code, individuals 11 who are temporarily involuntarily committed or held under 12 a State-level process with respect to which the State has 13 been certified under section 4(c) shall be treated as a sepa-14 rate and distinct population from individuals who are in-15 voluntarily committed through a judicial process.

16 (b) LIMITING LIABILITY FOR MENTAL HEALTH PRO-
17 FESSIONALS.—Any mental health professional who does 18 not report under a reporting system established under sec-
19 tion 2(a)(1), in accordance with guidelines established 20 under section 4(a), information described in paragraph 21 (2), (3), or (4) of section 2(a), with respect to an indi-22 vidual described in such respective paragraph, shall not 23 be held liable in any civil action in State or Federal court 24 for any damages resulting from such failure to report such 25 information.

1 (c) DETERMINATION OF DANGEROUSNESS.—For 2 purposes of this Act, a determination of dangerousness, 3 with respect to an individual, shall be predicated on the 4 presence of either—

5 (1) a substantial risk of physical harm to the 6 individual as manifested by evidence of, threats of, 7 or attempts at, suicide or serious bodily harm; or 8 (2) a substantial risk of physical harm to an-9 other individual as manifested by evidence of homi-10 cidal or other violent behavior or evidence that such 11 other individual is placed in reasonable fear of vio-

12 lent behavior and physical harm to such other indi-13 vidual.

14 (d) STUDY ON EXISTING STATE STATUTES.—

15 (1) STUDY.—The Secretary of Health and 16 Human Services (in this subsection referred to as 17 the “Secretary”) shall enter into an agreement with 18 the Institute of Medicine (or if the Institute declines 19 to enter into such an agreement, another appro-20 priate entity) to conduct a comprehensive study on 21 State statutes, enacted before the date of the enact-22 ment of this Act, that require mental health profes-23 sionals to directly report certain individuals into 24 State firearm prohibition databases.

1 (2) CONSIDERATIONS.—The study under para-
2 graph (1) shall include consideration of the fol-
3 lowing:

4 (A) How the State statutes described in 5 such paragraph impact the quality of care pro-
6 vided by mental health professionals to patients.

7 (B) How such State statutes impact a pa-
8 tient's decision to access mental health treat-9 ment.

10 (C) The effectiveness of such State stat-
11 utes as interventions for preventing firearm-re-
12 lated violence.

13 (D) Any other relevant considerations, as 14 determined by the Institute of Medicine (or, if 15 applicable, the other appropriate entity de-16 scribed in paragraph (1)).

17 (3) REPORT.—The Secretary shall ensure that, 18 not later than 12 months after the date of enact-
19 ment of this Act—

20 (A) the study under subparagraph (1) is 21 completed; and

22 (B) a report on the finding and conclusions
23 of such study is submitted to the Congress.

1 (e) AMENDING REFERENCES FROM PERSONS ADJU-
2 DICATED AS A MENTAL DEFECTIVE TO INELIGIBLE DUE
3 TO DISQUALIFYING MENTAL STATUS.—

4 (1) IN GENERAL.—

5 (A) Section 175b(d)(2)(F) of title 18,
6 United States Code, is amended by striking
7 “adjudicated as a mental defective,” and insert-
8 ing “adjudicated as ineligible due to disquali-9 fying mental status”.

10 (B) Section 842 of title 18, United States
11 Code, is amended—

12 (i) in subsection (d)(6), by striking
13 “adjudicated a mental defective,” and in-14 serting “adjudicated as ineligible due to 15 disqualifying mental status”; and 16 (ii) in subsection (i)(4), by striking

17 “adjudicated as a mental defective,” and
18 inserting “adjudicated as ineligible due to 19 disqualifying mental status”.

20 (C) Section 922 of title 18, United States
21 Code, is amended—

22 (i) in subsection (d)(4), by striking
23 “adjudicated as a mental defective,” and
24 inserting “adjudicated as ineligible due to
25 disqualifying mental status”;

(ii) in subsection (g)(4), by striking “adjudicated as a mental defective,” and inserting “adjudicated as ineligible due to disqualifying mental status”; and

(iii) in subsection (s)(3)(B)(iv), by striking “adjudicated as a mental defective,” and inserting “adjudicated as ineligible due to disqualifying mental status”.

(D) The NICS Improvement Amendments

Act of 2007 (18 U.S.C. 922 note) is amended—

(i) in section 3(2), by striking “adjudicated as a mental defective,” and inserting “adjudicated as ineligible due to disqualifying mental status”;

(ii) in section 101—

(I) in subsection (b)(2)(C)(ii), by striking “adjudicated as a mental defective,” and inserting “adjudicated as ineligible due to disqualifying mental status”;

(II) in subsection (c)(1)(C), by striking “adjudicated as a mental defective,” and inserting “adjudicated as ineligible due to disqualifying mental status”;

(III) in subsection (c)(3), in the matter preceding subparagraph (A), by striking “adjudicate a person as a mental defective,” and inserting “adjudicate a person as ineligible due to disqualifying mental status”; and

(IV) in subsection (c)(3)(A), by striking “adjudicate the person as a mental defective,” and inserting “adjudicate the person as ineligible due to disqualifying mental status”; and

(iii) in section 102—

(I) in subsection (b)(1)(C)(iv), by striking “adjudicated as a mental defective,” and inserting “adjudicated as ineligible due to disqualifying mental status”; and

(II) in subsection (c)(3), by striking “adjudicated as a mental defective,” and inserting “adjudicated as ineligible due to disqualifying mental status”.

23 (2) REFERENCES.—For purposes of each provi-
24 sion amended by paragraph (1), a reference to a 25 person adjudicated as ineligible due to disqualifying

1 mental status shall be considered to refer to a per-2 son adjudicated as a mental defective, as defined for 3 that provision on the day before the date of enact-
4 ment of this Act.

5 (3) REGULATIONS.—For purposes of regula-6 tions issued to carry out a provision amended by 7 paragraph (1)—

8 (A) before the regulations are amended to 9 carry out this subsection a reference in the reg-10 ulations to a person adjudicated as a mental de-11 fective shall be considered to be a reference to 12 a person adjudicated as ineligible due to dis-13 qualifying mental status; and 14 (B) in amending the regulations to carry 15 out this subsection, a Federal agency shall en-16 sure that the regulations clearly state that per-17 sons adjudicated as ineligible due to disquali-18 fying mental status were formerly termed per-19 sons adjudicated as a mental defective.

20 (4) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in this 21 subsection shall be construed to alter or otherwise 22 affect the definition of persons previously termed 23 “adjudicated as a mental defective” under provisions 24 amended by paragraph (1).
